Revue de presse

'This compendium shows her bold creativity, with shoots featuring models posing with fresh meat and bathed in paint among other unusual set-ups. It also acts as a who's who of top photographers, with photos snapped by the likes of Annie Leibovitz, Helmut Newton, Mario Testino, Tim Walker, and Bruce Weber. Some of Posnick's personal memories and a foreword by Anna Wintour add further context, giving a glimpse into what goes into the collaborative process and production of these iconic shots.' --Marylebone & Fitzrovia Magazine Présentation de l'éditeur

The name Phyllis Posnick is synonymous with Vogue and the extraordinary fashion editorials the magazine's audience loves. Posnick is best known for creating photo editorials to illustrate the magazine's Beauty and Health articles, but cast off any ideas you have about close-ups of lips and eyelashes. Instead, picture models bathed in paint or posing next to cuts of fresh meat. This collection invites readers to glimpse the complex production process--and the collaboration and creativity--behind each extraordinary editorial. The book features images by a who's who of legendary photographers: Irving Penn, Steven Klein, Annie Leibovitz, Mario Testino, Patrick Demarchelier, Tim Walker, Anton Corbijn and Helmut Newton. The book includes a foreword by Anna Wintour and is punctuated by Posnick's personal memories and irreverence. Biographie de l'auteur

Phyllis Posnick began her career as an assistant to Diana Vreeland at Vogue and has been the executive fashion editor since 1987. She lives in New York City.
